ABOUT THE SONG WIFEY

In this vibrant trap joint, Jewish stresses a lot on telling a story between 2 teen lovers which in this sense is him and his "distant girl". The track is based on a complicated relationship filled with pride and trust issues. The girl seems to be paying less attention to Jewish, only to realize on a later note that she's into Jewish and that he's really the one for her. It's complicated for both parties. Jewish ends the song as a busy man who will only manage to get back for talks with the girl, after his 2 weeks outing.
